I. APM files due on May 15th

- a. Include non-claims for payment method 1B
 - i. Payers should report non-claims payments even if providers are not at risk for these payments
- b. Best estimate for budget (i.e., if no hard-dollar amount is set in the contract, use a best estimate)
- c. APM Test and Production Environments are both up and running.

II. TME and RP Files

- a. Payer Certifications for TME and RP due within ten business days of successful submissions
 - i. Note that separate certifications must be submitted for each TME file (2012 Final and 2013 Preliminary) and for each of the RP files (2013 HOS, 2013 OP, 2012 PG).
- b. IBNR forms and IBNR certifications (separate certification form)
 - i. Note the IBNR certification form is separate from the TME and RP certifications.
 - ii. Please refer to the TAG Call Summary from April 9, 2014, for an example of how to apply the IBNR factors.

III. IBNR forms and certifications due within ten business days of successful TME submissions
